Dated:20.09.2005

Between:

Sri Dinesh Joshi, S/o.Satyanarayana Joshi,
Owner of Vencord Corporation, Maharajgunj, Hyderabad,

R/o.Nimboliadda,

Kachiguda, Hyderabad.

..... PETITIONER

AND

Joint Collector-II (C),
Ranga Reddy District at Saifabad, Hyderabad-4, and another.

.....RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

The present writ petition is filed challenging letter No.A7/27/2004, dated 06.06.2005.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Assistant Government Pleader for Civil Supplies appearing for the respondents.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contended that the wheat is decontrolled commodity and the respondents have no right to seize the same. On the other hand, learned Assistant Government Pleader for Civil Supplies contended that the wheat was not seized from the possession of the petitioner, but it was seized from M/s. Siddartha Roller Flour Mill at Jeedimetla, and that proceedings under Section 6-A of the Essential Commodities Act were disposed of by the first respondent on 19.04.2004.

According to the learned counsel for the petitioner, though final order under Section 6-A of the Essential Commodities Act was passed by the first respondent, it has been set aside by the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Ranga Reddy District, and the matter is remitted to the Joint Collector for conducting enquiry.

Therefore the remedy to the petitioner is to get himself impleaded as party to the 6-A proceedings, which is pending before the Joint Collector, and plead his case before the Joint Collector and establish the same.

In the circumstances, without entering into the merits of the case, the writ petition is disposed of directing the petitioner to get himself impleaded as a party to the 6-A proceedings before the Joint Collector. No costs.
